

CESA #1, Milwaukee Public Schools and The Wisconsin Association for Talented and Gifted are pleased to present the following workshop series:

WHAT:	Supporting the Emotional Needs of Gifted (SENG) Guided Discussion Group for Parents of Gifted and Talented Students, ages 5-18
WHEN:	Six Tuesdays, February 23 – March 30, 2010, 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.
WHERE:	Milwaukee Public Schools Central Office, 5225 W. Vliet Street Milwaukee, WI (each night's room information will be posted at entry)
COST:	$25.00, which covers the cost of the book A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children , and six sessions for one or two parents/significant adults. Books will be sold at the sessions -- cash or checks made out to: Wisconsin Association for Talented and Gifted

CO-FACILITATORS: Jackie Drummer, Past President of the WI Association for Talented and Gifted and gifted and talented coordinator, School District of South Milwaukee, and Carol Rudebeck, adjunct faculty at Cardinal Stritch University and former gifted and talented coordinator, Germantown Schools.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION: Registration deadline is February 19, 2010; register online at www.cesa1.k12.wi.us. To request translation or sign language services, please call Amanda Nick at 262-787-9538.

SESSION TOPICS:

- Session One: Identification and Characteristics of Gifted Children
- Session Two: Motivation and Discipline
- Session Three: Sibling, Parent and Peer Relations
- Session Four: Stress Management and Depression
- Session Five: Communications of Feelings and Tradition Breaking
- Session Six: Tools for Life and Talent Development: At School and at Home

OBJECTIVES:

- To establish an environment in which parents of talented children can receive support, guidance, and professional advice through discussion with other parents and trained leaders.
- To develop parenting skills to nurture the self-concept and emotional development of talented children and their families.

THESE WORKSHOPS ARE FUNDED THROUGH A 2009-2010 WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION GIFTED AND TALENTED GRANT