

Name _____

Maintain a double-entry journal as you read Nickel and Dimed. A sample has been done for you. Create at least ten more entries. Your last entry must come from the last eight pages of the novel. Create a works cited page so the instructor can find the passages you have indicated in the correct edition. DUE THE THIRD DAY OF SCHOOL.

Nickel and Dimed
Barbara Ehrenreich

Chapter and Page Number	Quote the Passage	Reader's Response
Chapter 1 Page 22	"I COULD DRIFT ALONG LIKE THIS, IN SOME DREAMY PROLETARIAN idyll, except for two things. One is management."	Our narrator seems to believe that most workers will work hard without being intimidated by management. I like to believe that I am this kind of worker, but I'm not so sure everyone can do his or her job without a lot of cajoling.
