

Riverside University High School
Summer Reading Assignment
Paragraph Directions

In every story the main character changes before the story's end. Compose and word process a thoughtful paragraph describing how the main character in Nickel and Dimed changes in the course of this narrative. Does the character become a better or worse person? In what way or ways? Does the character mature? How can you tell? What are some important events that contribute to the character's change in the story? DUE THE THIRD DAY OF SCHOOL.