

CURRICULA

Students will be assigned to a homeroom advisor that will track their credits needed to graduate. The coursework is largely individualized, self-paced, and involves close interaction with teachers. Students earn .5 credits for every 60 hours of completed work in the classroom setting, in accordance with state educational requirements.