

Milwaukee Public Schools, Drug Free Schools, and John and Kitty Bowen, Professional Educational Development, present

*Tim Burns, Educare Institute
CORE Team Training
Helping Educators Understand
Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse*

A Dynamic One-Day Workshop for Non-Public City of Milwaukee Schools

Tim will focus on the following topics:

- * Understanding Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse
- * The affects of AODA on the brain
- * Signs of AODA
- * Symptoms of AODA
- * Stages of AODA
- * Intervention Strategies
- * One-on-one Ways to Approach Students
- * Activities to Involve Youth and Build Trust

The Presenter:

Tim Burns of Educare Institute in Santa Fe, New Mexico, is an educator, author, and presenter. He is a former classroom teacher, counselor, university instructor, and adolescent drug-treatment program director. Tim has worked with over a thousand school districts, youth organizations and agencies across the nation and internationally. He is the author of three books and an eight-part video series. Tim is an avid practitioner of Aikido and an award-winning artist.

Why this workshop?

This workshop will help participants gain the basic AODA information needed to better serve youth.

Who may attend?

Administrators, teachers, counselors, social workers, psychologists and other staff in the city of Milwaukee non-public schools.

What is the cost?

This is an approved Title IV activity. The cost is $100 per school (covers all participants from the same school) and should be included on the Non-public School Title Program Request Form. Each participant who attends this workshop may be paid a stipend of $15 per hour if the participating non-public school submits a Title Program Request Form.

Is there a limit to the number of attendees?

There are forty places available for the training. Participants will be signed up on a first-come, first-served basis.

For information on date, location and registration please see reverse.

Workshop Date and Time:

Saturday, October 9, 2004

8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

(There are forty places available for the training. Participants will be signed up on a first-come, first-served basis.

Workshop Location: CESA #1, 19601 Bluemound Rd., Brookfield, Wisconsin

Registration and continental breakfast are at 8:00. A one-hour lunch break is on your own. Upon receipt of registration, participants will be mailed a confirmation which includes a map to the location.

Cost and Payment information: This is an approved Title IV activity. Title Program Request Forms for the $100 cost and payment to attendees need to be submitted to Ed Valent, MPS Title Program Supervisor, Central Services, Room 253, MPS, P. O. Box 2181, Milwaukee, WI 53201. Questions about these forms may be directed to Ed Valent, (414) 475-8122

Registration information: Fill out and fax or send the form below. Registrations will be processed in the order they are received. If you have any questions, please contact John Bowen at (414) 427-4803.

- - - - - Registration - - - - -

CORE Team Training: Helping Educators Understand AODA

Please submit registration in one of the following ways:

Either... Mail to John Bowen, Professional Educational Development,
P. O. Box 110, Greendale, WI 53129

Or...Fax it to John Bowen, Professional Educational Development,
(414) 427-4803

(There are forty places available for the training. Participants will be signed up on a first-come, first-served basis.)

Name School

Your teaching or other assignment

School Address, Street City State Zip

Daytime Phone Evening Phone